LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:38 a, m, and sets at 4:48 p, m. High water at 7:50 a, m, and 8:00 p, m. WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- For this so tion rain and colder tonight; Wednesday fair; colder; fresh southerly winds, shifting to northwesterly, becoming brisk.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.-A called meeting of the Board of Police Com-missioners was held last night. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock with Mayor Simpson presiding and all with Mayor Simpson presiding and all the members present. The meeting was exciting, and all present indulged in animated debate. At times the scenes became more than exciting, savoring of seriousness. Charges and counter-charges were made without hestiancy, and there was no mincing of words.

The first business was the resignation of Policeman James Deane. A vote was taken and his resignation accepted. The secretary then read the names of a number of applicants for position as policeman. It was then moved that the election be proceeded with. Mr. Lawler said it had always been the custom to accept the resignation, and at the fellowing meeting to elect a man to fill the vacancy. He could see no hurry for such an election, and thought the board could wait two weeks before filling the vacancy. Commissioner Bryant stated that acceptage men had appeared before the weeks before filling the vacancy.

Commissioner Bryant stated that seventeen men had appeared before the board and been examined, and he could see no impropriety in an immediate

Mr. Lawler then denounced the le method of electing a policeman. He asserted that the matter was all before the meeting, and it waiting. The last election, he declared, showed conclusively that the matter was "fixed" when J. Christopher Gill was elected on the second ballot.

Mayor Simpson agreed with Mr.

Mr. Lawler said it was known that Mr. Gill was to be elected. Mr. Hill at this juncture excitedly arose and add: "I voted for Mr. Gill, and I deny that allegation. I have never promised a tiving soul, and when I come here I come with my hands free." Commissioner Miller stated that the election of Mr. Gill had never been decided upon.

Mr. Lawler continued to urge his opposition to the election. A vote was taken, and three voted for an immediate election, and two against. The matter was about to be proceeded with when Mr. Lawler arose again and protested. Commissioner Bryant subsequently withdrew his motion, and the election was postponed.

Commissioner Bryant offered a resolution that a bill for the sum of $500, or as much thereof as may be necessary, City Council tomorrow night, so as to see if the Council would pay the bill. Mr. Lawler stated that the City Council had already refused to pay the bill and they would do so sgalo. He said the Commissioners had no right to contract the bill and expect the City Council to foot it without having conthem in the matter, as the Commissioners were really wants of the City Council, that body electing them. The speaker contended that it was so injustice to the tax-pay era to present a bill which had been incurred in a squabble between them and the Mayor. Continuing, Mr. Lawler said: "I am opposed to you bringing that old bill here that has once before been turned down by the City Council, and I want a recorded vote taken, and Mr, Simpson said that the resolution could be submitted, but he would vote against it, and wanted a recorded vote taken. The commissioners, he said, had gone into the matter without asking the City Council, A recorded vote was then taken on the matter and Messrs. Bryant, Hill and Miller voted for presenting the bill to the City Council tonight, and Messrs. Simpson and Lawler voted against it. The board subsequently adjourned.

FOUR NEGROES CONFESS. - Four negroes under arrest in Washington negroes under arrest in Washington have made a full confession of the part each played in the assault on and robbery of John J. Bayliss, of Fairfax county, on Long Bridge Saturday night. All admit having agreed upon the robbery, sharing alike in the booty secured from Mr. Bayliss after he was injured. Each admits having picked have some to be used as weapons as up a stone to be used as weapons as their intended victim approached in his wagon, behind which was led the horse that he had bought. The criminals are Martin Campbell, nineteen years old, George Taylor, seventeen, Charles Fortune, seventeen, and Forrest Elmore, sixteen years old, all residents of Wash ington. In the confessions made by same story, each acknowledging his particular part in the sffair, with the exception of the striking of the victim on the head with a stone. It was this blow which fractured Mr. Baylies' skull and rendered him helpless in the hands of the robbers. Campbell claims that he does not know who struck the blow, but Fortune and Taylor stated positively that it was Campbell. They claim the latter had a brick in his hand when he climbed into the farmer's when he climbed into the farmer's wagon, and that he struck Mr. Baylies carried a piece of the victim's hat brim into the wound. Campbell declared that Taylor had a knife in his statement of Duke and Fayette streets. When this shall have been done it is said trains going north will use the Henry street track and there is the street track and the street that Taylor had a knife in his hard when he (Taylor) climbed into the wagon. Taylor was asked what he had proposed doing with the weapon, and he replied that he intended cutting the farmer's throat, "Dead men tall said trains going north will use the Henry street track and those south bound that on Fayettestreet. Recently surveys have been made at several points in that locality.

METEORS.—The astronometers of the contraction o the farmer's throat, "Dead men tell no tales," he added. After running away the quartette divided the spoils, away the quartette white the spots, each taking $3.13. Bayliss claims that seem to be still beguilded by the theory he lost over $40, but the thugs say he is which brings this meteoric display every APPLICATION DENIED. - Justice Hag ner in Washington yesterday denied the application, made on November 7, by the American Autocarette Company for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of certain property pur-chased under contract from the Auto-mobile and Manufacturing Company, seemed ridiculous and silly to have the of Baltimore, in proceedings in which men appear there and stand outside the last named corporation was named the last named corporation was named as defendant. The property in que-tion consisted of ten autocarettes, built for the American Autocarette Company by the Maryland corporation. On January last the Automobile and Manufacturing Company filed suit in the Circuit Court at Alexandria to recover the full price of ten machines. The latter then filed a cross suit against the Au-tomobile and Manufacturing Company to recover $23,500. Of this amount $12,500 was money advanced, the remainder being cleimed as damages and forfeitures. The court was asked to take charge of the property pending the recovery to the Vicinia. sult of the proceedings in the Virginia courts.
